

Rosa’s Radiant Rainbow: A Spanish Color Guide

Learning objective: To identify, spell, and use key color vocabulary in Spanish, and understand how adjectives agree with nouns in gender.

Key Vocabulary

Rosa the parrot is ready to help you learn your colors! Use this vocabulary list to practice your Spanish. Notice how some words end in 'o' (masculine) and some in 'a' (feminine). Categories: Primary Colors, Secondary Colors, and Neutral Shades.

rojo The color red. Often associated with en...	azul The color blue. Think of the deep ocean.	amarillo The color yellow. Like the bright sun.
verde The color green. The shade of fresh l...	naranja The color orange. Like the fruit.	morado The color purple. A royal and vibrant..
rosa The color pink. Soft and delicate.	marrón The color brown. The shade of tree ...	blanco The color white. Clean and bright.
negro The color black. The color of the night...	gris The color grey. Like a cloudy afternoon.	oro Gold. A metallic, shining color.
plata Silver. A cool, metallic shade.	claro Light. Used to describe a paler version...	oscuro Dark. Used to describe a deeper vers...
Explain why you ...	Compare and con...	If you were descr...
What might happ...	Justify why 'blan...	Create a new sen...