

Rosa's School Talent Show

Learning objective: To understand and use Spanish opinion phrases to express preferences about school subjects and activities.

Read the text below carefully. Use your knowledge of Spanish opinion phrases to answer the questions that follow in English.

Rosa the parrot is busy organising the annual Oakwood School Talent Show. She is interviewing her friends to see what they want to perform. Max the monkey is very excited. He says, '¡Me encanta las matemáticas!' because he loves solving complex puzzles on stage. However, he admits, 'No me gusta cantar' because he thinks his singing voice is quite squeaky. Next, Rosa speaks to Zara the zebra. Zara is very artistic. She tells Rosa, 'Me gusta pintar,' and plans to create a giant mural live on stage. She finds dancing very boring, adding, 'El baile es aburrido.' Finally, Rosa asks Pip the caterpillar about his plans. Pip is quite shy but loves reading poetry. 'Me encanta leer poemas,' he chirps happily. Rosa is delighted that everyone has a different talent. She writes all their preferences in her notebook, making sure the show will be a perfect mix of art, numbers, and literature for all the students to enjoy.
