

Rosa's Busy Day: ¿Qué hora es?

Learning objective: To understand and use Spanish vocabulary for telling the time, whilst practising reading comprehension skills.

Read the text carefully. Pay close attention to the Spanish time phrases and the routine activities described. Answer the questions in full sentences, using evidence from the text where required.

Rosa the parrot has a very busy schedule in the forest. She loves to teach her friends how to tell the time in Spanish. Every morning, Rosa wakes up at 'las siete' (seven o'clock) to polish her colorful feathers. By 'las ocho y cuarto' (eight fifteen), she is ready to fly to the river to meet Finn the dolphin. They practice their Spanish together. At 'las diez y media' (ten thirty), Rosa flies to the canopy to find some fruit for a snack. She always makes sure to return home by 'las doce menos cuarto' (twelve forty-five) because that is when the sun is at its highest and it is time for a siesta. In the afternoon, Rosa is back to work. At 'las tres en punto' (three o'clock), she starts her language lesson for the young animals. She enjoys explaining that 'y cuarto' means quarter past, while 'menos cuarto' means quarter to. By the time the moon rises, Rosa is exhausted but happy. Learning to tell time helps her keep the forest running like clockwork!

Word bank: ¿Qué hora es? (What time is it?) · Es la una (It is one o'clock) · Son las dos (It is two o'clock) · y cuarto (quarter past) · y media (half past) · menos cuarto (quarter to)
