

Sheet 11: Facts, Opinions, and Purpose

Worked example:

Read this sentence: 'The local library opened at 9:00 am today, which is far too early for anyone.' Identify the fact and the opinion.

Answer: Fact: The library opened at 9:00 am. Opinion: 9:00 am is far too early.

- Read this short report by Pip: 'The BookFlik Forest Festival took place on Saturday. Over 500 people attended the event. It was the most exciting day of the year!'

Identify one fact from the report. Identify one opinion from the report.

- Circle whether the following sentences are a Fact or an Opinion.

The sun rose at 6:15 am. (Fact / Opinion) The sunrise looked beautiful today. (Fact / Opinion)

- Why did the author write the report about the festival? Choose from: To inform, To entertain, or To persuade.

Purpose:

- Match the sentence type to its definition.

Fact: Can be proven true or false. Opinion: A person's belief or feeling.

- Write one fact about your school and one opinion about your favorite subject.

Fact: Opinion:

Self-check: Check your answers: Facts must be provable with evidence, while opinions use descriptive words like 'best', 'boring', or 'exciting'.

Ready for next: Once you can confidently spot the difference between what happened and what someone thinks about it, you are ready to identify an editor's stance.