

Zara's Printmaking Flashcards

Learning objective: To understand the basic tools and techniques used in printmaking.

Read the front of the card. Try to guess the answer. Then, look at the back of the card to check your knowledge. Use the word bank to help you.

What is the coloured liquid used to make a print?

Ink

What is the small roller used to spread ink called?

Brayer

A type of printing where the raised parts hold the ink.

Relief printing

The surface you carve or shape to make your print.

Block

What do you call a repeating shape or design?

Pattern

What is the feel or surface quality of an object called?

Texture

What do you call the plan or drawing for your artwork?

Design

The action of pushing the block onto the paper.

Press

True or False: In relief printing, the ink sticks to the raised parts.

True

What is the name of the paper you print onto?

Print paper