

Black History Month Flashcards with Ellie the Elephant

Learning objective: To learn about important people and themes from Black history.

Read the front of each card. Then, check the back to see the answer. Ellie the Elephant has helped us remember these important facts!

What is Black History Month?

A time to celebrate the achievements and contributions of Black people to history.

What does 'Equality' mean?

When everyone is treated fairly and has the same rights.

Who is a 'Leader'?

Someone who guides others and helps make positive changes in the world.

What does it mean to have 'Courage'?

Being brave enough to stand up for what is right, even when it is hard.

Why do we study history?

To learn from the past so we can make the future better for everyone.

Who was Mary Seacole?

A brave nurse who helped soldiers during the Crimean War.

Who was Rosa Parks?

A woman who showed great courage and helped start the fight for equal rights.

What is an 'Inspiration'?

Someone who encourages others to do good things or follow their dreams.

What is 'Community'?

A group of people living or working together to support each other.

What does 'Respect' mean?

Treating others with kindness and valuing who they are.