Exploring Africa: A Geography Flashcard Challenge

Learning objective: To identify and recall key geographical features, climates, and facts about the continent of Africa.

Read the front of each flashcard to test your knowledge about Africa. Flip the card mentally (or use the 'Answer' section) to check if you are correct. Can you answer all 10?

What is the name of the world's largest hot desert located in Northern Africa?	Which famous river flows through north-eastern Africa and is often considered the longest river in the world?
The Sahara Desert.	The River Nile.
Which imaginary line of latitude passes through the middle of the African continent?	What do we call the tropical grassland biome found in Africa, home to animals like lions and elephants?
The Equator.	The Savanna.
What is the name of the mountain range located in North-West Africa, spanning Morocco, Algeria, and Tunisia?	True or False: Africa is the second-largest continent in the world by both land area and population.
The Atlas Mountains.	True.
Which massive waterfall, known locally as 'The Smoke That Thunders', is located on the border of Zambia and Zimbabwe?	What is the term for the average weather patterns in a region over a long period of time?
Victoria Falls.	Climate.
How many countries are there on the continent of Africa?	Is the study of cities, population, and trade considered Physical Geography or Human Geography?
54 countries.	Human Geography.