

Remembering with Ellie the Elephant

Learning objective: To understand the significance of Remembrance Day and why we use symbols like the poppy to show respect.

Ellie the Elephant has been learning about history. Look at the word bank below and use the words to fill in the blanks to complete the sentences about Remembrance Day. This helps us understand why we show respect on the 11th of November.

Word bank: poppy · respect · peace · soldiers · red · eleventh

1. Remembrance Day is held on the ____ month of the year, which is November. (1 mark)

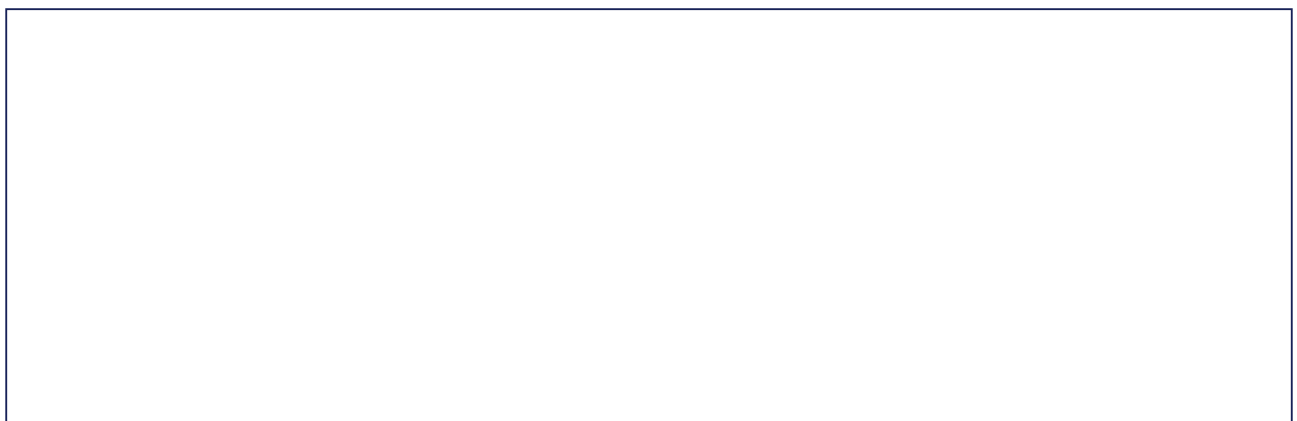

2. People wear a ____ to remember those who helped us. (1 mark)

3. The colour of this flower is _____. (1 mark)

4. We remember the brave ____ who served in wars. (1 mark)

5. We have a moment of silence to show ____ for everyone who worked for _____. (2 marks)

Draw: Draw a beautiful poppy flower in the space below. Think about the bright red petals and the dark centre. You could also draw a small medal next to it to show how we honour people.

Extension challenge: Ask an adult at home if they have ever seen a poppy wreath or a war memorial in your local town. Draw a picture of what you think a memorial looks like.
