Celebrating Black History

Learning objective: To understand why we celebrate Black History Month and learn about the contributions of Black people to our society.

Read each question carefully. Use the word bank to help you complete the sentences. If you need help, ask a partner or your teacher.

Word bank: history · achievements · contributions · respect · celebrate · community

1. Black History Month is a time to _____ the important work people have done in the past. (1 mark)

2. Why is it important to learn about the _____ of Black people? (Use the word bank to help). (2 marks)

3. Name one way you can show _____ to everyone in your school _____. (2 marks)

4. Max the monkey wants to know why we study history. Write one sentence to explain why it is important to remember the past. (2 marks)

Draw: Draw a picture of a person who has done something kind or brave to help their community. Draw them standing tall and proud.

Extension challenge: Choose one person you have learned about. Write their name and one special thing they did in your workbook.