

Remembrance Day Writing Scaffold

Learning objective: To write a respectful reflection on why we remember people on Remembrance Day.

Use the prompts below to help you write your reflection. Look at the word bank if you need help with your spelling.

Remembrance Day is a very special time when we think about people who have helped us.

Word bank: respect · peace · brave · remember · poppy · sacrifice · because · thank you · important · service

1. Why do we wear a poppy? Start your sentence with: We wear a red poppy because... (2 marks)

2. How do people show respect? Start your sentence with: At the memorial, people show respect by... (2 marks)

3. Why is it important to remember? Start your sentence with: It is important to remember the past so that we can... (2 marks)

4. How can we look after peace today? Start your sentence with: We can help keep peace by... (2 marks)

Extension challenge: Can you write a thank you poem for those who served? Use your word bank to help you.