

Learning About Sikhism with Pip

Learning objective: To understand the core beliefs of Sikhism and the importance of the Gurdwara.

Read each question carefully. Use the word bank to help you write your answers. Pip is here to help you!

Pip the caterpillar is learning about the Sikh faith. Sikhs believe there is one God. They go to a special building called a Gurdwara to pray. Inside, they show respect to their holy book, the Guru Granth Sahib. They also have a kitchen called a Langar where they serve free food to everyone. Sikhs believe that all people are equal.

Word bank: Sikhism · Gurdwara · Guru Granth Sahib · Langar · Equality · Service

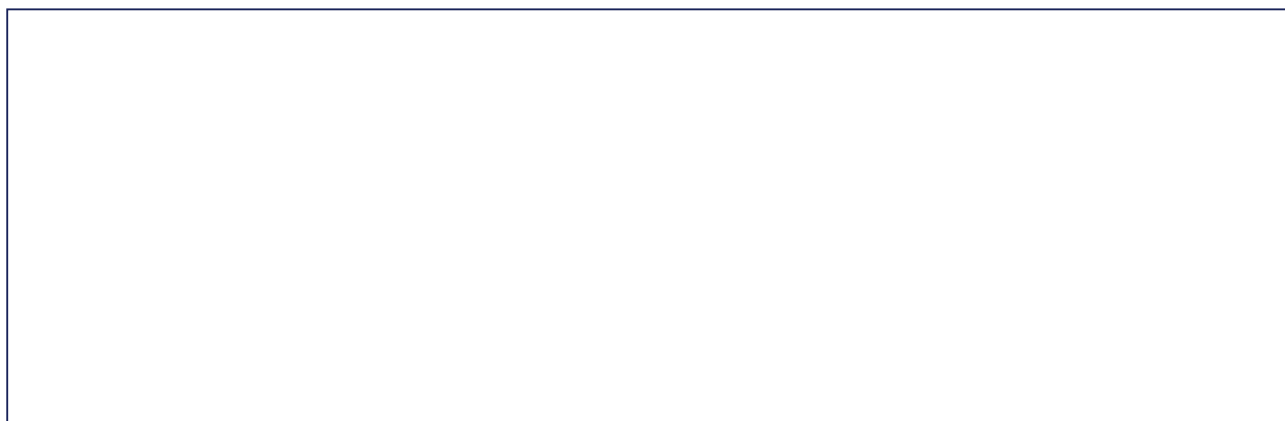

1. What is the name of the place where Sikhs go to pray and learn? (1 mark)

2. What is the name of the holy book that is treated with great respect in the Gurdwara? (1 mark)

3. Sikhs believe that everyone is equal. Can you name one way they show kindness by serving free food? (2 marks)

4. Complete this sentence: A _____ is a kitchen where free meals are served to anyone who is hungry. (1 mark)

Draw: Draw a picture of a Gurdwara. Think about the welcoming feeling of the building.

Extension challenge: Write one sentence about why it is kind to share food with others.