Zara the Zebra’s Colourful Garden: A Look at Claude Monet

Step into the garden and paint with light just like Claude Monet!

- Claude Monet was a famous artist who loved to paint outside in the fresh air.
- He used quick, bright brushstrokes to show how light sparkles on water.
- Monet liked to paint the same scene at different times to see the changing colours.
- His paintings often show beautiful flowers, lily ponds, and weeping willow trees.
- You can mix colours on your palette to create your own garden masterpiece.

Did you know? Did you know? Claude Monet loved his garden so much that he built a special wooden bridge over his lily pond and painted it many times to see how the colours changed at different times of the day!

Key vocabulary: Impressionism · Brushstroke · Landscape · Reflection · Palette