

Instruction Writing Flashcards with Max the Monkey

Learning objective: To identify and understand the features of instructional writing.

Read the front of the card to see the instruction word. Flip it over to read the definition. Max the Monkey is here to help you learn!

What is an Imperative verb?

A bossy verb that tells you what to do, like 'mix' or 'cut'.

What does Chronological mean?

Putting things in the correct order of time.

What is a Subheading?

A small title that tells you what a section is about.

What is a Bullet point?

A small dot used to make a list easy to read.

What is an Adverb?

A word that describes how to do something, like 'slowly' or 'carefully'.

What is an Equipment list?

A list of things you need to finish a task.

What is a Step?

One part of a set of instructions.

Why do we use numbers in instructions?

To show the order in which to do the steps.

What is the purpose of instructions?

To tell someone how to do or make something.

What is a Time conjunction?

A word like 'first', 'next', or 'finally' to show the order.