

Finn's Geography Journal: People in Our World

Learning objective: To understand why people choose to live in different places.

Follow the prompts below to write about where people live. Use the word bank to help you write full sentences.

Finn the dolphin has been mapping the world and noticed that some places have many people living there, while others are very quiet.

Word bank: population · city · village · countryside · homes · because · nearby · work · school

1. What is the population of a place? (Hint: Think about the number of people living there.)
Start your sentence with: The population is... (2 marks)

2. Why do many people choose to live in a busy city? Start your sentence with: People live in a city because... (2 marks)

3. Why might some people prefer to live in a quiet village? Start your sentence with: People might live in a village because... (2 marks)

4. Where would you like to live and why? Start your sentence with: I would like to live in a... (2 marks)

Extension challenge: List three things that every town needs to have for people to live there happily.