

Learning About Inspiring People: A Social Studies / History Writing Frame

Learning objective: To write a short biography about a significant historical figure who has made a difference in our world.

Use this frame to help you write about an inspiring person you have learned about in class. Think about what they did, why they were brave, and why we remember them today. Remember to use your best handwriting and capital letters for names.

In our history lessons, we have been learning about an inspiring person named...

Word bank: because · firstly · also · in the past · brave · kind · important · made a difference · helped · leader

1. Who is the person you have chosen and when did they live? Start your sentence with: I am writing about... (2 marks)

2. What was this person famous for doing? Start your sentence with: They were famous because... (2 marks)

3. How did this person help other people? Start your sentence with: They helped people by... (2 marks)

4. What is one interesting fact you found out about them? Start your sentence with: One interesting fact is... (2 marks)

5. Why is this person important to remember today? Start your sentence with: We remember them because... (2 marks)

Extension challenge: Imagine you could meet this person. Write one question you would love to ask them if they visited your classroom today.