

My Hero Fact-File: Celebrating Black Social Studies / History

Learning objective: To learn about significant individuals from Black history and record key facts about their lives and achievements.

Today, we are joined by Ellie the elephant, who has an amazing memory for stories! Choose a significant person from Black history that you have learned about in class. Use this fact-file to record what makes them a hero. Write in full sentences and remember to check your capital letters and full stops.

Word bank: hero · brave · history · important · kind · achieved · change · inspiring · leader

1. Name of the person: Write the name of the person you have chosen to research. (1 mark)

2. What are they famous for? Write two sentences about what this person did that was important. (2 marks)

3. Why are they a hero? Explain how this person helped other people or changed the world. (2 marks)

4. What is one interesting fact you found out about their childhood or life? (1 mark)

5. If you could ask this person one question, what would it be? (1 mark)

Extension challenge: On the back of this sheet, draw a picture of your chosen person and write one sentence explaining why you think their story is important for us to