

Celebrating Remarkable People

Learning objective: To write a short biography about an important person from Black history.

Read the opening sentence below. Use the questions to help you write about a person you have learned about. Use the word bank to help you join your ideas together.

Black Social Studies / History Month is a special time to learn about the lives of people who have made our world a better place.

Word bank: firstly · also · because · brave · important · helped · changed · kind · in addition

1. Who is the person you have chosen to write about? Start by saying: The person I have chosen to learn about is... (2 marks)

2. What is one important thing they did? Start by saying: They are famous because... (2 marks)

3. Why do you think they were a brave or kind person? Start by saying: I think they were very... (2 marks)

4. How do we remember them today? Start by saying: We remember them today because... (2 marks)

Extension challenge: Can you draw a picture of your chosen person and write one sentence to explain why they are a hero to you?