Celebrating Amazing People: My Black History Month Fact-File

Learning objective: To recognise and celebrate the contributions of Black historical figures and understand that everyone can make a positive difference in the world.

Today, we are going to learn about a person who has made our world a better place. Use this fact-file to record what you have learnt about them. You can talk to a partner or your teacher to help you fill in the boxes. Remember to think about why they are special and how they have helped others.

Word bank: brave · kind · history · helper · amazing · leader · change · story

1. Name of the person: Who are you learning about today?

2. What did they do?: Describe one amazing thing this person did to help other people.

3. Why are they a hero?: Tell us why you think this person is special or important.

4. The best part: What is one fact about them that you will remember?

5. My promise: How can you be a kind helper in your school, just like the person you studied?

Extension challenge: Ask Ellie the elephant to help you share your fact-file with the class. Can you tell your friends one thing you would ask this person if you could meet them today?
