

Celebrating Eid with Zara the Zebra

Learning objective: To understand the key traditions and meaning of Eid al-Fitr for Muslim families.

Zara the Zebra loves patterns and celebrations! Look at the list of things people do to celebrate Eid al-Fitr. Sort them into two groups: 'Things people do at home' and 'Things people do to show kindness'. Write the correct action in the box provided.

Word bank: Giving money to charity · Cooking special food · Wearing new clothes · Visiting family

1. 1. Name one thing people do at home to celebrate. (Example: 'People might be...') (1 mark)

2. 2. Name another thing people do at home. (Example: 'They also love to...') (1 mark)

3. 3. What is one way people show kindness during Eid? (Example: 'A kind thing to do is...') (1 mark)

4. 4. Why do you think wearing new clothes makes the day feel special? (Example: 'It feels special because...') (2 marks)

Draw: Draw a picture of a table set for an Eid feast with Zara the Zebra. Include colourful patterns on the tablecloth and some tasty treats.

Extension challenge: If you were planning an Eid party, how would you spend £10 to make your friends feel welcome? List two things you would buy.
