- Judaism is a monotheistic religion, which means Jewish people believe in one God.
- A synagogue is a place where Jewish people gather to pray, learn, and meet as a community.
- Shabbat is a special day of rest that happens every week from Friday evening until Saturday evening.
- The Torah is the holy book of Judaism that contains important teachings and stories.
- A Kippah is a small, round cap that some Jewish men and boys wear to show respect to God.

Did you know? Did you know? The Torah is the most sacred book in Judaism. It is often written on a long scroll made of parchment and kept in a special cabinet called an Ark inside the synagogue.
