

Zara's Bright Diwali Rangoli

Let's get colourful! Join Zara the Zebra to create a pattern that sparkles with joy.

- Diwali is a special festival of lights that is celebrated by millions of people all over the world.
- A Rangoli is a beautiful pattern made on the floor using bright coloured powders, flower petals, or rice.
- Many Rangoli designs use symmetry, which means the pattern looks the same on both sides.
- Shapes like circles, squares, and triangles are often used to build a big, creative design.
- Making a Rangoli is a wonderful way to express kindness and share happiness with friends and family.

Did you know? Did you know? Rangoli patterns are often made on the floor near the front door to welcome guests and bring good luck to the home during the festival of Diwali!

Key vocabulary: Rangoli · Diwali · Pattern · Symmetry · Festival · Colour