Zara the Zebra's Starry Art Adventure: Exploring Vincent van Gogh

Grab your paintbrush and let's swirl, dash, and splash with colour, just like Vincent!

- Vincent van Gogh loved to use very bright and bold colours in his paintings.
- He used his paintbrush to make short, wiggly lines that look like dashes.
- Sometimes he painted pictures of beautiful flowers, like bright yellow sunflowers.
- Vincent often painted what he saw outside, like fields, trees, and the big, blue sky.
- He painted portraits, which are pictures of people's faces.

Did you know? Did you know? Vincent van Gogh loved to paint the night sky. He used thick, swirling paint to make his stars look like they were twinkling and moving across the canvas!
