

Celebrating Black History Month with Ellie the Elephant

Step into the story of our shared history and discover the remarkable people who helped shape the world we live in today!

- Black History Month is a time to honour the stories of Black people who have made a positive difference to our lives.
- We look back at history to learn about people like Mary Seacole, a brave nurse who helped many soldiers during the Crimean War.
- Celebrating diversity helps us understand that everyone has a unique background and special talents to share with the world.
- By reading books and listening to stories, we can discover new heroes who worked hard to change things for the better.
- Every person's heritage is a colourful piece of the puzzle that makes our society strong, kind, and interesting.

Did you know? Did you know? Black History Month in the UK was first celebrated in 1987! It is a special time dedicated to remembering and learning about the achievements of Black people throughout history, from inventors and scientists to artists and leaders.
