

Mastering the Art of Explanation: A Guide by Kit the Fox

Unravel the Mystery: Become an Expert Explainer!

- How do causal conjunctions like 'consequently', 'therefore', and 'as a result' help the reader understand the relationship between different steps in a process?
- Why is it essential for an explanation text to be written in the present tense rather than the past tense?
- Explain why technical vocabulary is necessary when describing a complex mechanical or natural process.
- What is the purpose of using subheadings and numbered steps in a piece of non-fiction writing?
- How does the inclusion of a diagram or illustration enhance the clarity of an explanation text?

Did you know? Did you know? The very first explanation texts were often written as 'how-to' guides for early inventions. Just like Kit the Fox uses logic to solve puzzles, an explanation text uses clear, logical steps to help a reader understand how or why something functions in our world!

Key vocabulary: Chronological · Causal Conjunctions · Passive Voice · Technical Vocabulary · Flow Diagram · Present Tense · Subheadings