

Mastering Nouns and Verbs: The Language Architect’s Word Mat

Learning objective: To identify, classify, and apply precise nouns and verbs to enhance descriptive writing.

Key Vocabulary

Explore the categories below. Use these terms to identify the building blocks of your sentences. Categories: [Types of Nouns] and [Types of Verbs].

Proper Noun A specific name for a person, p...	Common Noun A general name for a person...	Abstract Noun A noun referring to an idea, ...
Collective Noun A word used to represent a...	Compound Noun A noun made up of two or...	Dynamic Verb A verb that describes an acti...
Stative Verb A verb that describes a state of...	Modal Verb A type of auxiliary verb that exp...	Auxiliary Verb A 'helping' verb used to form ...
Infinitive Verb The base form of a verb, usu...	Subject The person or thing performing the ...	Object The person or thing that is affected b...
Tense The form of a verb that indicates whe...	Agreement The requirement that the subject...	Conjugation The process of changing a verb...
Explain why a wri...	Compare and con...	Justify your ans... Does the sentence 'The f...
What might happ...	Select three abst...	Identify the modal... 'Pip might read the bo...