

Exploring Africa with Finn the Dolphin

Learning objective: To write a short report about the geography of Africa using descriptive language.

Follow the prompts below to write your report. Use the word bank to help you write full sentences. Start each paragraph with the sentence starter provided.

Africa is a vast and beautiful continent with many different types of land.

Word bank: continent · hot · desert · rainforest · landscape · countries · famous · location · across · because · also

1. Where is Africa? Start your sentence with: Africa is located... (2 marks)

2. What is the weather like? Start your sentence with: In many parts of Africa, the weather is... (2 marks)

3. What can you find in the landscape? Start your sentence with: The landscape includes... (2 marks)

4. Why is Africa special? Start your sentence with: I think Africa is special because... (2 marks)

Extension challenge: Can you name one famous river or desert found in Africa? Write the name below.