

Exploring Asia with Finn

Learning objective: To identify the continent of Asia and name some of its key features.

Finn the dolphin is exploring the world map. Use your atlas or map to help Finn find answers about Asia. Write your answers in the boxes.

Asia is the biggest continent in the world. It has many different countries. It is next to the Pacific Ocean. Mount Everest is a very tall mountain found in Asia.

Word bank: Asia · continent · ocean · mountain · largest

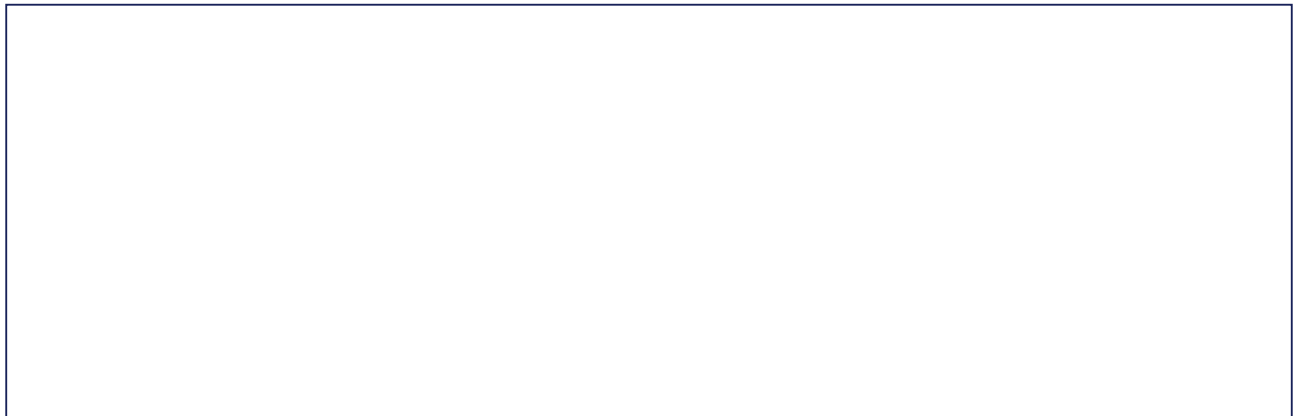

1. 1. Is Asia the smallest or the largest continent in the world? (1 mark)

2. 2. Which ocean is found to the east of Asia? (1 mark)

3. 3. Name the very tall mountain that is located in Asia. (1 mark)

4. 4. Complete this sentence: Asia is a large _____ that contains many different countries. (1 mark)

Draw: Draw a tall mountain to represent the Himalayan range in Asia and label it 'Mount Everest'.

Extension challenge: Finn wants to visit a country in Asia. Can you find one country in Asia that starts with the letter 'I' and write its name here?