

Exploring Europe with Finn the Dolphin

Learning objective: To write a short report about a country in Europe using geographical facts.

Follow these steps to write your report. Use the sentence starters to help you. Think about what Finn the Dolphin would see if he swam around the European coast!

Europe is a large continent made up of many different countries, each with its own special features.

Word bank: Europe · country · capital city · mountain · river · famous · because · also · next to · continent

1. Introduction: The country I am writing about is... It is located in the continent of... (2 marks)

2. Capital City: The capital city of this country is... It is famous for... (2 marks)

3. Landscape: In this country, you can find... For example, there is a big... (2 marks)

4. Conclusion: I would like to visit this country because... (2 marks)

Extension challenge: Can you draw a flag of the country you chose and label one famous landmark?