

Finn's Mountain Explorer Fact-File

Learning objective: To identify and describe the physical features of a mountain environment.

Hello! Finn the dolphin here. I am exploring mountains today. Use this fact-file to tell me about a mountain you have learned about. Use the word bank to help you write your sentences.

Word bank: summit · slope · base · snow · rock · mountain range · peak · valley

1. The name of the mountain is: (1 mark)

2. The very top of the mountain is called the summit. Describe what it looks like at the top: (2 marks)

3. Mountains often have steep sides. What can you see on the side of the mountain? (2 marks)

4. At the bottom of the mountain, there is a low area between hills. This is called a valley. What is in the valley? (2 marks)

Extension challenge: Can you draw a picture of your mountain in the box below? Remember to label the summit and the base!