

Exploring South America with Finn the Dolphin

Learning objective: To describe the physical and human geography of South America.

Use the sentence starters below to help you write about the continent of South America. Remember to use your best handwriting and check your capital letters.

Finn the dolphin has swum all the way to South America to help us learn about this amazing continent.

Word bank: continent · Amazon Rainforest · Andes Mountains · famous · because · also · however · climate

1. Where is South America?: South America is a large continent found... (2 marks)

2. The Amazon Rainforest: One famous place in South America is the Amazon Rainforest because... (2 marks)

3. The Andes Mountains: You can also find the Andes Mountains, which are... (2 marks)

4. My favourite fact: I think South America is interesting because... (2 marks)

Extension challenge: Can you find out the name of one country in South America and write it down here?