

Max the Monkey's Time-Telling Tips!

Tick-tock, let's learn to tell the time with Max!

- The short hand tells us the hour, and the long hand tells us the minutes.
- When the long hand points to the 12, we say it is o'clock.
- When the long hand points to the 6, we say it is half past the hour.
- There are 60 minutes in one whole hour.
- There are 24 hours in one full day.
- Max the Monkey always eats his lunch at half past twelve!

Did you know? Did you know? The short hand on a clock is the hour hand, and the long hand is the minute hand. When the long hand points to the 12, it is always o'clock!
