

Rosa's Spanish Body Parts Poster

Let's learn Spanish with Rosa! Read the labels and learn how to talk about your body.

- La cabeza is the Spanish word for your head. Can you point to your head and say it aloud?
- Los ojos are your eyes. How many eyes do you have? You have dos ojos!
- La nariz is your nose. It helps you smell delicious snacks.
- La boca is your mouth. Use it to speak, sing, and eat.
- Las piernas are your legs. You use them to run, jump, and play.

Did you know? Did you know? In Spanish, nouns have a gender! We use 'el' or 'los' for masculine words and 'la' or 'las' for feminine words. Rosa the parrot loves practising these out loud to get the sounds just right!

Key vocabulary: la cabeza (head) · los ojos (eyes) · la nariz (nose) · la boca (mouth) · los brazos (arms) · las piernas (legs) · los pies (feet)
