

Rosa's Spanish Body Parts Track Sheet

Learning objective: To identify and name parts of the body in Spanish.

Hello! I am Rosa. Let's learn Spanish! Look at the list of words below. Read the sentences. Write the correct Spanish word in the gaps. Use the word bank to help you.

Rosa the parrot is ready to teach you. She points to her body and says the names in Spanish. Follow along with Rosa to complete your work.

Word bank: la cabeza (head) · los ojos (eyes) · la nariz (nose) · la boca (mouth) · las manos (hands)

1. Rosa points to her head. She says: 'Esta es _____.' (2 marks)

2. Rosa points to her eyes. She says: 'Estos son _____.' (2 marks)

3. Rosa points to her nose. She says: 'Esta es _____.' (2 marks)

4. Rosa points to her mouth. She says: 'Esta es _____.' (2 marks)

5. Rosa waves her wings. She says: 'Estas son _____.' (2 marks)

Draw: Draw a picture of a friendly bird. Label the head, eyes, nose, mouth, and hands in _____ Spanish using the words from the word bank.

Extension challenge: Can you find a partner? Point to your own head, eyes, nose, and mouth. Say the Spanish words out loud to your partner.