

Rosa's Transport Travels

Learning objective: To learn and identify Spanish names for different types of transport.

Read the sentences about Rosa the parrot. Use the word bank to help you complete the sentences. Follow the sentence starters.

Rosa the parrot loves to travel! She sees many things on her journey. She sees a red car, which is el coche. She sees a big bus, which is el autobús. She sees a fast train, which is el tren. She rides her bicycle, la bicicleta. Finally, she flies like an aeroplane, el avión.

Word bank: el coche (the car) · el autobús (the bus) · el tren (the train) · la bicicleta (the bicycle) · el avión (the aeroplane)

1. Rosa sees a red car. In Spanish, this is: _____. (2 marks)

2. Rosa sees a big bus. In Spanish, this is: _____. (2 marks)

3. Rosa rides her bike. In Spanish, this is: _____. (2 marks)

4. Rosa flies in the sky like an: _____. (2 marks)

Draw: Draw your favourite way to travel and label it with the correct Spanish word from the word bank.

Extension challenge: Can you write a sentence about how you travel to school using one of the Spanish words? Start with: 'Yo voy en...'