

Exploring World Biomes with Finn the Dolphin

Learning objective: To identify and describe different biomes around the world.

Read the front of the card. Think about the answer. Then, look at the back of the card to check if you are right. Use the word bank to help you.

What is a large area of the Earth with its own special climate, plants, and animals?	Which hot and dry biome gets very little rain?
A Biome.	A Desert.
Which wet and warm biome has many tall trees and colorful birds?	Which cold biome is found at the North and South Poles?
A Rainforest.	A Polar biome.
Which biome is mostly covered in grass and has few trees?	What do we call the typical weather in a place over a long time?
A Grassland.	Climate.
Finn the dolphin loves the ocean. What is the ocean considered to be?	Which imaginary line around the middle of the Earth is usually very warm?
An aquatic biome.	The Equator.
What is the natural home of an animal or plant called?	True or False: All biomes have the same weather.
A habitat.	False.
Which biome would you find a cactus in?	Which biome has ice and snow all year round?
A Desert.	A Polar biome.