

Finn's World Explorer Flashcards

Learning objective: To identify and name the seven continents and five oceans of the world.

Use these cards to help you learn the names of the continents and oceans. Read the question on the front, then flip to check the answer. Finn the Dolphin says, 'You are doing a great job!'

What is a very large area of land called?

A continent.

What is a very large area of salt water called?

An ocean.

Which is the largest continent in the world?

Asia.

Which continent is home to the United Kingdom?

Europe.

Which continent is covered in ice and has no permanent towns?

Antarctica.

Which is the largest ocean in the world?

The Pacific Ocean.

Which ocean is between Europe and the Americas?

The Atlantic Ocean.

Which ocean is found near the South Pole?

The Southern Ocean.

Which ocean is located around the North Pole?

The Arctic Ocean.

Which ocean is south of India?

The Indian Ocean.

How many continents are there in total?

There are seven continents.

How many oceans are there in total?

There are five oceans.