

Finn's Population Quiz

Learning objective: To understand what population means and how people live in different places.

Hello! I am Finn the dolphin. I love exploring the world and learning about where people live. Read each question carefully. Use the word bank to help you spell the tricky words.

Answer Key: 1. B, 2. True, 3. False, 4. B, 5. Urban, 6. Rural, 7. Population, 8. True, 9. False, 10. City.

Word bank: population · city · village · rural · urban · crowded · map · people

1. 1. What is the word for the total number of people living in a place? A) Habitat B) Population* C) Journey D) Map (1 mark)

2. 2. True or False: A big city usually has more people than a small village. (1 mark)

3. 3. True or False: Every place in the world has the exact same number of people. (1 mark)

4. 4. Which area is usually very busy and full of tall buildings? A) A farm B) A city* C) A forest D) A beach (1 mark)

5. 5. What is the name for an area that is built-up with many houses and roads? (Hint: Starts with U) (1 mark)

6. 6. What do we call the countryside where there are fewer houses and more fields? (Hint: Starts with R) (1 mark)

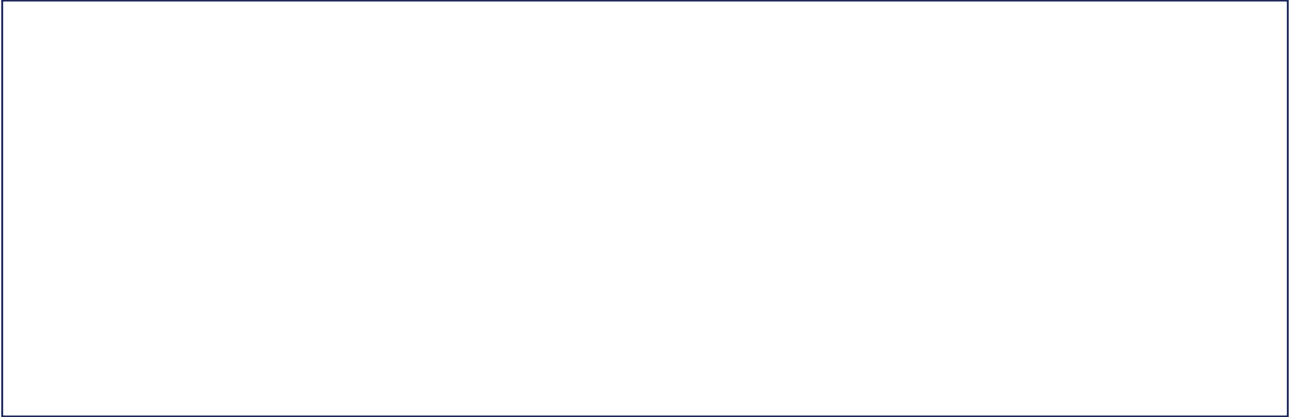

7. 7. Fill in the blank: The _____ of the UK tells us how many people live in our country. (1 mark)

8. 8. True or False: People choose to live in different places for different jobs. (1 mark)

9. 9. True or False: You can find a large population in the middle of a lonely desert. (1 mark)

10. 10. In which place would you find a very crowded street: a city or a farm? (1 mark)

Draw: Draw a picture of a busy city with tall buildings and lots of people on one side, and a quiet village with fields and a few houses on the other side.

Extension challenge: Imagine you are an explorer like Finn! If you could build a new town, would you make it a busy city or a quiet village? Write one sentence explaining why.