Ellie’s Black History Month Flashcards

Learning objective: To learn about significant individuals and the importance of celebrating Black History Month in the UK.

Read the front of each card. Can you remember the answer? Flip the card or check the answer after the | symbol to see how much you have learned with Ellie the elephant!

What is Black History Month?	Which month do we celebrate Black History Month in the UK?
A special time to celebrate the achievements and contributions of Black people to our history and society.	October.
Who was Mary Seacole?	What does the word 'contribution' mean?
A brave nurse who travelled to the Crimean War to care for sick and injured soldiers.	Doing something helpful or giving something to help a group or the world.
Who was Rosa Parks?	What is equality?
A lady who stood up for fairness and helped change unfair rules about where people could sit on buses.	Treating everyone fairly and making sure everyone has the same chances.
Why do we learn about history?	What does it mean to show respect?
To understand how the past helps us make the world a better place today.	Being kind, listening to others, and valuing who they are.
Can you name one way you can celebrate Black History Month at school?	Who is the BookFlik character that loves history and stories?
By reading stories about famous Black people, drawing pictures, or sharing what we have learned.	Ellie the elephant.