

Iron Age History Flashcards with Ellie the Elephant

Learning objective: To identify key features and objects from the Iron Age in Britain.

Read the front of each card. Try to guess the answer before looking at the back. Ellie the Elephant has included these to help you remember your history facts!

What was the name of the time period after the Bronze Age?	What strong metal did people learn to use to make tools and weapons?
The Iron Age	Iron
What shape were the houses that people lived in?	Where were settlements often built to keep people safe?
Roundhouse	On a hill (Hillfort)
What is the name for swapping goods instead of using money?	What material was used to make the walls of a roundhouse?
Trade	Wattle and daub
What was used to cover the roof of a roundhouse?	What did people use to protect their hillforts?
Thatch (straw)	Ditches and banks
What did farmers keep in the Iron Age?	What was an Iron Age 'Hillfort'?
Animals like sheep and cows	A village built on high ground for safety