

The Time of the Tudors

Step into the past with Ellie the Elephant! Discover the world of the Tudors.

- The Tudor family ruled England from 1485 to 1603. This time is known as the Tudor period.
- Tudor kings and queens lived in grand palaces and castles filled with beautiful tapestries and furniture.
- Wealthy Tudors wore very colorful clothes made of velvet and silk, often decorated with gold thread.
- Explorers during the Tudor age travelled across the oceans to find new lands and trade goods.
- Most Tudor children did not go to school; instead, they helped their families with work at home or on farms.

Did you know? Did you know? The Tudor period lasted for 118 years! During this time, the way people lived, dressed, and ate changed a lot. King Henry VIII and Queen Elizabeth I were the most famous rulers of this time.

Key vocabulary: Monarch · Tudor · Castle · Empire · Dynasty · Portrait