

PSHE Assessment: Celebrating Our Differences

Learning objective: To understand that everyone is unique and to show respect for others in our school community.

Read each question carefully. Use the word bank if you need help with spelling. Write your answers clearly on the lines provided.

Max the monkey loves math, while Pip the caterpillar loves reading. Zara the zebra sees patterns in art, and Nova the owl loves science. Even though they have different hobbies and look different, they are all friends. They make sure everyone feels welcome in their group.

Word bank: different · unique · respect · kindness · inclusion · community

1. Max and Pip have different hobbies. Name one way that you are different from your best friend. (2 marks)

2. What does the word 'respect' mean when we play with others? (2 marks)

3. Fill in the blank: Being part of an 'inclusion' group means that everyone is invited to _____. (2 marks)

4. Why is it important to have friends who have different interests to you? Use the sentence starter: It is good to have different friends because... (4 marks)

5. Imagine a new child joins your class. Describe two things you could do to make them feel welcome and included. (4 marks)

6. Extended Writing: Write a short story or a list of rules about how to treat others with kindness at school. Think about how we can celebrate the things that make us 'unique'. (11 marks)

Draw: Draw a picture of yourself and a friend doing something you both enjoy, even if you are different in other ways.
