

Max's Christmas Charity Store Challenge

Learning objective: To understand the importance of generosity and giving during the Christmas season.

Max the monkey is helping at a charity store this Christmas. He wants to help people who need extra support. Read the items below. Decide if each item is a 'Kind Gift' to give to someone else, or 'Keeping for Myself'. Use the word bank to help you write your reasons.

Word bank: generous · kind · share · happy · need · Christmas · charity

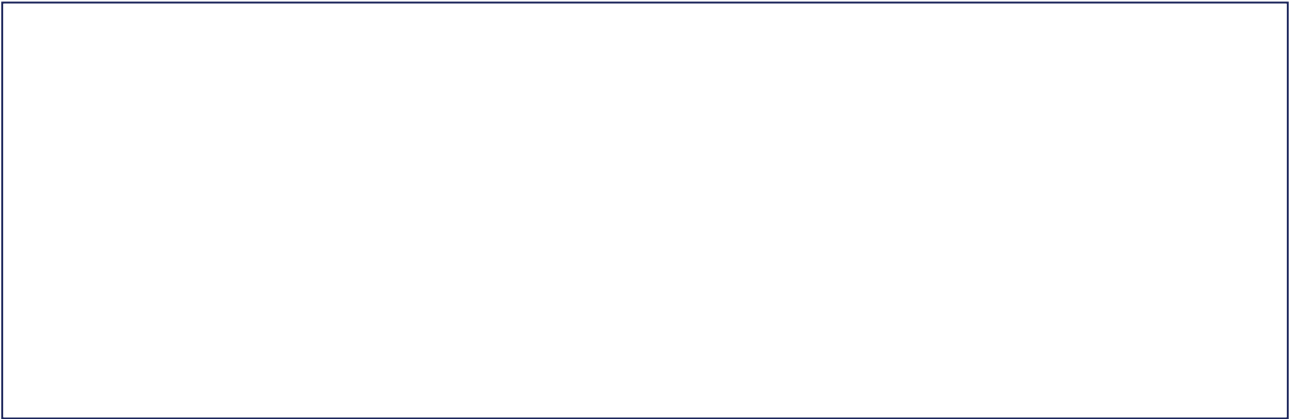

1. 1. You have a warm coat that you have outgrown. Should you give it to the charity store? Why? (2 marks)

2. 2. You have a new toy you just opened. Should you give it away or keep it for yourself? Explain your choice. (2 marks)

3. 3. Your friend is sad at Christmas. How can you be kind to them without spending any money? (2 marks)

4. 4. Why is it important to give gifts to others at Christmas instead of just thinking about yourself? (2 marks)

Draw: Draw a picture of Max the monkey giving a wrapped gift to someone who needs a smile.

Extension challenge: Think of one thing you could donate to help someone else this year. Write down why this item would make them feel happy.
