

Festivals Around the World with Pip and Ellie

Celebrate with the World! Discover how people share joy and kindness at festivals.

- Festivals are special times when families and communities gather to share happy memories.
- Many people enjoy special food like sweet treats or savoury dishes during a celebration.
- Giving gifts to friends and family is a kind way to show love during many festivals.
- People often wear colorful clothes or special outfits to mark a festival day.
- Music, dancing, and singing help to make a festival feel lively and full of joy.

Did you know? Did you know? Many festivals use light to symbolise hope! Whether it is candles, lanterns, or fireworks, people light up the night to show that goodness shines bright.
