

Max's Moral Choices

Learning objective: To think about moral choices and how our actions affect others.

Max the monkey has found some tricky situations! Read each situation below. Decide if the choice is a 'Kind Choice' or an 'Unkind Choice'. Write your answer in the box and tell us why you chose it. Use the word bank to help you.

Word bank: kind · unkind · helpful · honest · selfish · fair · thoughtful

1. Max finds a shiny coin worth £1 on the playground. He sees his friend drop it. Max keeps the coin. Is this a kind or unkind choice? Why? (2 marks)

2. Ellie the elephant is sad because she lost her favorite book. Max offers to help her look for it instead of playing his game. Is this a kind or unkind choice? Why? (2 marks)

3. Zara is painting a beautiful picture. Kit accidentally spills paint on it. Kit says sorry and helps Zara clean it up. Is this a kind or unkind choice? Why? (2 marks)

4. Pip the caterpillar is hungry. Max has two apples. He eats both and does not give one to Pip. Is this a kind or unkind choice? Why? (2 marks)

Draw: Draw a picture of a time you made a kind choice to help a friend.

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for a student to draw a picture of a time they made a kind choice to help a friend.

Extension challenge: Think of one more 'kind choice' you could make at school tomorrow. Write one sentence about it.
