

Making Good Choices with Max

Learning objective: To understand what a moral question is and why it is important to think about how our actions affect others.

Max the monkey is thinking about how to be a good friend. Read the questions below and use the word bank to help you write your answers. Think about what is kind and fair.

Word bank: kindness · choice · fair · honest · consequence · helpful

1. Max finds a shiny marble on the playground that belongs to his friend. What is the right choice for Max to make? (2 marks)

2. If you see someone sitting all alone at lunch, what is a kind thing you could do? (2 marks)

3. Why is it important to tell the truth, even if you have made a mistake? (2 marks)

4. A moral question is about deciding what is right or wrong. Can you think of one choice you made today that helped someone else? (2 marks)

Draw: Draw a picture of Max the monkey sharing his fruit with a friend. Show them both looking happy.

Extension challenge: Write one sentence about how it feels when you make a choice that makes someone else smile.