Extension challenge: 1. Explain why it is vital for a national curriculum to include a diverse range of historical voices and perspectives. 2. Compare and contrast the methods used by different civil rights activists; how did their approaches differ? 3. Justify your answer: In your opinion, which historical figure had the most significant impact on modern British society? 4. What might happen to our collective understanding of history if we only studied the stories of those in power? 5. Research a local Black historical figure in your town or city and write a short biography. 6. Propose a plan for a school-wide project that celebrates diversity throughout the entire year, rather than just in October.
