

Bonfire Night Flashcards

Learning objective: To learn about the history and customs of Bonfire Night in the UK.

Read the front of each card. Then, check the back to see if you are right. You can practice these with a partner or on your own.

When is Bonfire Night celebrated?

It is celebrated on the 5th of November.

What do we call the big pile of wood we set alight?

A bonfire.

Who was the man involved in the Gunpowder Plot?

Guy Fawkes.

What colourful lights do we see in the sky?

Fireworks.

What is a small, handheld firework called?

A sparkler.

What is a popular sweet treat eaten on this night?

A toffee apple.

What do fireworks make when they go off?

Loud bangs and bright colours.

Why do we have Bonfire Night?

To remember when the Gunpowder Plot was stopped.

What should you always wear when holding a sparkler?

Gloves.

What can you see in the night sky on 5th November?

Fireworks and stars.