Bonfire Night with Nova the Owl

Wrap up warm and join Nova for a sparkling night of history!

- Bonfire Night happens every year on the 5th of November.
- People light big bonfires to stay warm and bright in the dark autumn air.
- Bright fireworks are set off to make colourful shapes in the night sky.
- It is a special tradition to eat warm food like jacket potatoes or toffee apples.
- Nova the Owl reminds us to always stay far back from the fire to keep safe.

> Did you know? Did you know? Bonfire Night is also called Guy Fawkes Night. It is celebrated every year on the 5th of November to remember a famous event from long ago in 1605!
