The Story of Bonfire Night

Join Nova the Owl and Leo the Lion to explore the bright history of the 5th of November!

- Bonfire Night is held every year on the 5th of November to remember a historical event from 1605.
- In 1605, a group of people tried to cause damage to the Houses of Parliament in London.
- The plot was discovered before it could happen, and the King was kept safe.
- Today, we celebrate with bright fireworks and big bonfires to mark the end of the plot.
- Many people enjoy eating warm treats like toffee apples while watching the colourful displays.

> Did you know? Did you know? The rhyme 'Remember, remember the fifth of November' has been used for hundreds of years to help people remember the events of 1605!
