Roman Britain Flashcards with Ellie the Elephant

Learning objective: To recall and understand key facts about the Roman Empire and their influence on Britain.

Use these flashcards to test your knowledge of Roman history! Read the question on the front, try to answer it, then check your answer on the back.

Who was the leader of a Roman group of soldiers called a century?	What was the large, stone bridge-like structure used to carry water into Roman towns?
A Centurion.	An Aqueduct.
What did Romans use to decorate their floors using tiny, coloured pieces of stone or glass?	Which famous stone wall did the Romans build in the north of Britain to protect their border?
A Mosaic.	Hadrian's Wall.
What was a Roman 'Villa'?	What do we call the large group of soldiers that made up the Roman army?
A large, comfortable house often found in the countryside.	A Legion.
Ellie the Elephant says: What was the main language spoken by the Romans?	What was the name of the Roman road system that helped soldiers travel quickly across Britain?
Latin.	Roman Roads.
What was a 'Toga'?	What was the name of the Roman fort where a town grew up?
A piece of clothing, like a long robe, worn by Roman citizens.	A Castrum.
What was the main purpose of the Roman Baths?	What does it mean to 'invade' a country?
To wash, socialise, exercise, and relax.	To enter a country by force to take control of it.